

DRAFT Peoria R/C Modelers New Member Orientation

Name _____

Address _____

Email address _____

AMA # _____

AMA provide application if not member (AMA Document 902)

Documents for Presentation to New Members:

PRCM Bylaws

AMA Safety Code AMA# 3105

PRCM Flying Site Safety Rules

PRCM Operational Rules and Guidelines

Roster

Web address and web site content www.peoriarcmodelers.com

Documents are on available on our web site

Newsletter content and submissions to Bob Wilson wilsorc@gmail.com

We appreciate a short new member bio and digital photo for our newsletter.

Fire extinguisher and first aid kit box lock combination _____

Emergency phone number 911

Our location for emergency responders is 14501 N. Old Galena Road, Chillicothe IL, across from the Buckeye Terminal, and north of the Caterpillar Tech Center. Chillicothe Fire Department and Rescue 33 provide service to our area.

Information resources:

www.peoriarcmodelers.com

www.RCUniverse.com

www.rcgroups.com

Sanctioning Organization: Academy of Model Aeronautics (AMA)

At www.modelaircraft.org you will find pdf documents, AMA Special Interest Groups (SIGS), Pattern, IMAC, gliders, scale, safety rules, and much more.

Q. I am a new flyer. How do I choose a radio frequency?

A. Many flyers are choosing 2.4 Ghz radios and frequency choices are not a problem. If you are flying on a frequency, note that frequency on the frequency board. Others can review the board and choose a less used frequency.